Eduardo Hernandez Ochoa died May 5, 2020. He was born in Alvarado, Veracruz, Mexico, on the February 5, 1942. He was the son of Rafael Hernandez de La Peña and Juana Ochoa García; the fifth of their seven children: Rafael, Armando, Dulce Maria, Esther Maria, (Eduardo), Pedro, and Elena.

In 1970, 28 year old Eduardo moved to Texas, but in 1982 he moved to Okeechobee, Florida where he decided to start a business that became his lifelong project: the creation of beautiful gardens for the people of Okeechobee, a job he enjoyed until his death. In 1993 he went to work for Larson Dairy, Inc. and was employed by the family for 20 years.

Eduardo never married and never had children, but he was deeply loved by friends and his family, many of whom came to the United States to visit him. He is survived by two sisters, Esther María Hernández Ochoa, 80, Elena Hernández Ochoa, 71, and many nieces and nephews in Mexico.

Eduardo's legacy will forever live on, not only in the hearts of his family and friends but in the community as we enjoy the imprint of his creativity and beauty he left us.
